Quickly becoming the preferred choice of holiday destination Madeira is now becoming an excellent choice for those wishing to retire.

- 1) Excellent Tax advantages. As well as the Non-habitual tax regime, there is no inheritance and gift tax and no wealth tax in Portugal.
- 2) The Golden Visa - It seems experts and clients alike share a common belief that Portugal's Golden Visa Scheme is outstanding in terms of the conditions required, the qualifying period in the new country and the the quality of life provided.
- 3) Strict planning permissions that secure the natural beauty and limit the supply of new properties – keeping demand high.
- 4) The country is politically stable, it has no terrorism
- 5) Rental yield on average still remains one of the highest in Europe with properties being rented for many weeks of the year.
- 6) Cultural Richness. One of the oldest and richest cultures in Europe and the legacy of its former wealth and power can be seen in its historical sites. Among the sites inscribed in the World Heritage List of UNESCO, 13 are located in Portugal.
- 7) The Portuguese are warm, friendly and welcoming whether you are on holiday or a new neighbour.
- 8) One of the lowest crime rates in Europe and the capital was recently voted the safest Europe.
- 9) The cost of daily living is incredibly low.
- 10) Based on the prices in the UK, Paris, Spain and France, prices of property in Portugal are still very affordable
